How did you find out about the Home contest (if via web, please list the site)? _____

Grand Prize will be awarded by a panel of 3 professional quilters/designers. Member's Choice, Honorable Mention prizes and several specially awarded prizes will also be given. AAQ members will choose Member's Choice award--a good reason to become a member when you enter the contest and to solicit new members—every vote counts!). Previous Grand Prize winners are ineligible for consideration for Grand Prize.

*Visit www.allianceforamericanquilts.org/support/ for more information about becoming an AAQ member.

Entry must be postmarked by June 1, 2012 and include the following:

- This completed, signed Entry Form (one entry form per quilt) including Artist's Statement (see p.2).
- Quilt following dimensions and construction rules on p. 3 of this application.
- Non-refundable entry fee. Non AAQ members* pay $25 for the first quilt and $10/ea for subsequent quilts. Alliance members pay $5 per quilt. The Alliance for American Quilts is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit organization. Donations and memberships are deductible to the extent allowed by law.

I would like to join (or renew with) the AAQ today to save on entry fees. I am including ___$25, ___$50, ___$75, ___$125 with my payment to cover my new/renewal membership good for one year.

There are three payment options:

Emailed to amy.milne@quiltalliance.org. Please put "Home contest" in the subject line of your email.

Again this year: audio artist's statements: valued AAQ business member, VoiceQuilt has donated free audio recording services so that all of our contest entrants can record their artist's statement. Our audience will be able to hear about your quilt not only in your own words, but also in your own voice. Once you've submitted your quilt, we'll contact you with instructions on how to record your artist's statement.
